

28th August 2007.

REMINDER

Members are reminded that in accordance with the requirements of the Gambling Commission, as from Saturday 1st September 2007, Racecourse Bookmakers will not be permitted to bet at racecourses throughout the UK unless they are in possession of 'photographic' identification.

The NAB suggests that all Racecourse Bookmakers carry some form of photographic evidence of identification such as a passport, driving licence (with photo) or NJPC authorisation (with photo).

*National Association of Bookmakers.
28th August 2007.*