

20th December 2016

To: All Bookmaker members of FRB affiliated Associations

Re: Your Annual Contribution to GambleAware:
formerly known as Responsible Gambling Trust (RGT)

You may have received a letter from GambleAware (formerly 'Responsible Gambling Trust') seeking contributions under Section 3.1.1 (2) of the Gambling Commission's revised licensing C.C.P; which came into force in May 2015.

You are reminded that the FRB pays an annual contribution on behalf of those bookmakers who currently fall under the FRB 'umbrella'. As long as this applies to you, just return the form to GambleAware, stating that the FRB has already paid a contribution on your behalf. We are advised that GambleAware will then remove your name from their relevant data base.

Reminder re: FRB/ TRP Contract Letters, dated 14th December 2016

Please could you take care to complete, sign and return to the FRB, the whole page; which is entitled: 'PLEASE COMPLETE AND POST THIS COPY TO FRB'

Many thanks

The Directors and staff at the FRB, pass on our

Season's Greetings

& Wish you, a very

Prosperous, Healthy & Happy New Year!
