‘NEWSLETTER’

Very important for all Racecourse Bookmakers to read this ‘Newsletter’

DISTRIBUTION OF SIS PAYMENTS.

For the 45th Levy period (1st April 2006 – 31st March 2007) NJPC authorised bookmakers who produce for the FRB a relevant ‘Notice of Assessment and Certificate of Discharge’ will be paid a proportion of their ‘levy liability paid’, the percentage of which will be determined at a later date when the total amount of claims is known.

The relevant ‘Notice of Assessment and Certificate of Discharge’ should be sent to Brian Newland at the following address by 30th April 2008 with the aim of making payment by 31st May 2008.

19, Culm Valley Way,
Uffculme,
Devon.
EX15 3XZ.
(Phone / Fax : 01884 – 841859)

A copy of this letter will also be posted on the FRB, NAB and NJPC web-sites in March 2008 and local associations will be asked to remind their members of the deadline.

Members should obtain confirmation that their application has been received by including a stamped addressed envelope with their application. If confirmation of receipt has not been received within two weeks, enquiries should be made on the above telephone number as to whether the required documents have been received.

As a consequence of the above arrangements, claims that applications have been lost in the post or that bookmakers were unaware of the scheme will not be accepted.

It will not be possible to make a payment to anyone who fails to supply the above information by 30th April 2008 or to bookmakers who only bet at ‘point to point’.

Late submissions will be considered only on the basis of medical grounds or failure to receive a ‘Notice of Assessment and Certificate of Discharge’ from the Levy Board due to on-going litigation.

It should be noted that the only people who will have access to the details of bookmakers Levy payments will be Brian Newland and the Grant Thornton representative.
